

County rejects chief in pact

By JOE CHAREST

Romulus police Chief Jacob J. Koch may have to go before a contract between the city and county for police service can be entered into.

So says the Law Enforcement and Public Safety Committee of the Wayne County Board of Commissioners, which met with county, city and police representatives last week to discuss the matter.

Police Chief Koch, 58, is a 25-year veteran of the Detroit Police Department. He has been chief in Romulus for 6 years.

Eugene A. Sikora (D-7th Dist.) is chairman of the county committee. He says, "I object summarily to retired personnel from one municipality being hired by another."

"Since he (the chief) is hired at the mayor's pleasure,"

Sikora continued, "he could be let go before any contract became effective."

In addition to the point the commissioner made, there are several other problems involving Koch's inclusion in contract arrangements.

Provisions must be made to fit all present Romulus personnel into slots which provide equal or higher pay than their present jobs do.

All regular policemen in Romulus would be placed into the patrolman category, providing a slight raise in pay for each.

By virtue of his supervisory position, however, Koch fits more readily into a detective category, although he would originally be placed on the detectives waiting list and function as a patrolman.

Representatives of the union which serves Wayne County Sheriff's officers stated that the union would not accept placing Koch on top of this waiting list, since one of the county's own workers would then wait longer for a promotion.

Police leader charges higher contract costs

The proposed 24-hour law enforcement services offered the City of Romulus by the Wayne County Sheriff Department's Road Patrol will cost the city "considerably" more than reported by officials, Robert Kahl, president of the Romulus Police Officers Association, charged Tuesday.

The law enforcement contract, originally offered the city more than five months ago, reported its initial year's cost would be approximately $348,000.

Recent revisions made by the Law Enforcement and Public Safety Committee of the Wayne County Board of Commissioners, made public two weeks ago, jumped the cost per unit of patrol service from $175,000 to $189,216.

The unit of service consists of one patrol car, one patrolman on days, two on afternoons and two on the night shift with all back up services of the sheriff's office.

Kahl, whose association has filed court suit seeking dismissal of the proposed contract, reports that the basic terms of the contract provide for two police units on a 24-hour basis, or approximately $380,000 for the first year of service.

In addition, he says, wage increase and fringe benefits now being considered by the sheriff's department personnel, would have to be paid by the city, an additional of approximately $20,000.

Further, Kahl reports, the city would be obligated to pay additional money for the services of road patrol cars that may become necessary for special events on such major emergencies riots.

He added that in the event the city police services require the use of the identification or detective personnel of the sheriff's road patrol, the city would bear the added cost.

Kahl stated that in his opinion, the officials of the city and sheriff department have not detailed the full cost to the city on the proposed contract.

"It could possibly reach from $400,000 to $500,000 the first year of the proposed contract," Kahl said.

But if the police chief is in the package at all and entitled to rights under Section 28 of the Civil Service Act, which spells out county promotion policies, this is what probably would occur.

Also, several commissioners were miffed that the Romulus City Council had not acted upon changes recommended by the commissioners last week.

The council met last week, but failed to take any definitive action modifications. A main consideration is the length of the initial contract. The original proposal called for a minimum of five months of service with each party allowed to give six months' notice for cancellation. The commissioners amended this to require a minimum three year contract: 2 years of service and then one-year notice before cancellation.

Romulus Hyle J. Carmichael answered charges of delay on the part of the council, saying, "All I need from the Board of Commissioners is something concrete for them to vote on. I want to bring back the total package to them."

The commissioners had only recommended changes 2 weeks ago and intended to get a reading from Carmichael as

OEO target areas vote to decide poverty reps

Election of "target area" residents to the board which will direct anti-poverty programs in eight Wayne County communities is scheduled for four consecutive days, beginning June 7.

Any resident of the federally-designed target areas who is at least 18 years old is eligible to be a candidate, to nominate candidates and to vote. Included are Inkster, Romulus, and Sumpter Township.

"This program was designed to benefit the low-income residents of the target areas and we urge them to participate to make the program a success," said Roscoe L. Bobo, of Ecorse, chairman of the Economic Opportunity Committee of the Wayne County Board of Commissioners.

Those elected will help direct economic opportunity programs which, based on past funding, could amount to $1 million annually.

Election dates set by the CUFA election committee are: Sumpter Township-Romulus, Monday, June 7; Highland Park-Hamtramck, Tuesday, June 8; River Rouge-Ecorse, Wednesday, June 9; Inkster-Taylor, Thursday, June 10.

Elections will be held in "town hall" style meetings at places to be chosen by the mayors or township supervisors of each target area. Area residents interested in participating may contact their city or township hall for the location.

Two delegates and two alternates from each of the eight communities will be elected to the board of directors of Communities United for Action (CUFA), the non-profit corporation designated to operate the program by the Board of Commissioners. They will serve three-year terms.

Nominations will be followed by secret ballot. The mayor or supervisor or his designee will act as chairman. Balloting will be monitored by the Michigan Office of Economic Opportunity.

Voters in Romulus can meet at Beverly Elementary School, 35408 Beverly Road, Romulus at 7 p.m. and in Sumpter at the Township offices, 23483 Sumpter Road at 7 p.m.

Election for Inkster delegates and alternates from the poor community will be held in the Inkster Civic Center Council Chambers at 7 p.m. The guidelines for the election are as follows:

— All residents of 18 years of age or older are eligible to vote.

— They must have proof of age and residency, and sign a register at time of balloting.

— Candidates will be nominated from the floor by members of the audience.

— Nomination procedure begins at 7:00 p.m. and each nomination must be seconded by 1 citizen. Nomination speeches to be given by the nominator will be limited to 3 minutes.

Election will begin at 8:00 p.m. It will be conducted by secret ballot with each person voting for two delegates and two alternates.

— No absentee or proxy ballots will be accepted.

— Only persons attending the election can vote or be elected.

— Elected delegates cannot hold any office within the city government nor can they be employees of the city or full-time salaried appointees.

Persons seeking to take part in the elections will be required to document that they live within the target area by showing a driver's license, rent receipt or some other evidence.

CUFA was organized by the mayors and township supervisor of the eight target areas in a bid to win resumption of federal funding of anti-poverty programs in Wayne County outside Detroit.

The CUFA board will consist of the 16 elected residents, the seven mayors and one township supervisor, four county commissioners, plus additional members to be determined by the original members.

The regional office of the U.S. Office of Economic Opportunity (OEO) at Chicago refused to renew $776,000 in federal funds last Nov. 30, charging that the program was "generally ineffective" as then operated by a citizens' committee.

Eighty percent of the funding for the new program will be federal money, with the remaining 20 percent provided locally in cash and services.

Eight neighborhood action centers were closed and some 90 employees laid off after federal funding of the old program was withdrawn.

Central Business District non-profit association forming

The Central Business District Committee of the Romulus Chamber of Commerce has announced plans to form a non-profit organization in a united campaign to upgrade, improve and develop the central business district of the City of Romulus.

Committee Chairman Lee Kalota reported that progress is being made toward uniting local merchants in the campaign and that merchants contacted are all willing to cooperate and saw the need to upgrade and develop the business area.

At last week's, committee meeting, held at the Old Progressive Hall, 11580 Ozga Rd., Romulus, members of the committee approved contacting attorney Felix Rogalle to draft a charter for a non-profit organization for the Central Business District Association.

The organization will be seeking funds from the merchants to participate in programs for the betterment of the business community.

Plans were also being made to hold a street cleaning campaign with details to be announced at a later date.

The meeting last week was attended by 15 local merchants. Kalota expressed disappointment at the turn out when many of the 60 businesses in the area expressed interest information of the CBDA.

A five-man committee selected earlier to contact the business community for ideas and suggestions for CBDA consideration and action reported on its recent canvass among local merchants.

The committee was composed of Carl W. Morris, Louis Blitz, Ted Hammel, Dr. Ray Elwart and Kalota.

Comments from local merchants as detailed in a petition circulated by the five man committee disclosed the merchants' suggested needs and programs for the Romulus community.

They include additional announced that he would not accept the post or seek election, said Saturday that he had changed his mind after a Republican member of the township board nominated former township supervisor George Angel for the appointment.

Moore, a Democrat who defeated Mrs. Wilma Wilson, Republican, for township clerk in last November's general election, was named acting supervisor when political newcomer Douglas C. Rhoads, 29, resigned.

Rhoads a republican, defeated incumbent supervisor Angel in the November election.

Rhoads' resignation was mailed to the township board by his wife, Susan. Rhoads claimed afterwards that the resignation was illegal. His wife contends that her husband ordered her to mail the resignation, which was signed by Rhoads.

On May 7, the township board unanimously accepted the resignation and named Moore acting supervisor until the board makes an appointment to finish the term, which expires in 1974, or holds an election, if an appointment is made by the township board within 45 days.

At last week's township board meeting, board member Edward Helwig, a Republican nominated Angel for the post.

Moore said, "I am definitely opposed to having George Angel in office so I have made myself available for the post.

"Angel was defeated last November so I can't see why he should be appointed to the post. They (Angel's supporters) were so strong in backing him that I have withdrawn my statement of not seeking the post."

Helwig's nomination to appoint Angel was seconded by Roy Raker. It was defeated by a vote of 4 to 2. Angel served as supervisor from April 1, 1966 to last November.

Deadline for appointing a successor to Rhoads is June 22.

The Democratic majority of the board may nominate Moore and if they vote as a block the appointment will carry.

Moore, a long time township resident, resides at 36980 Ellis Rd., New Boston.

The Belleville Area Lions Club is accepting nominations for the Merle Barker Memorial Award.

The award is presented annually to an outstanding driver of the Van Buren Public Schools Transportation Department.

This year's contest chairman, Jerry McKelvey, detailed the rules for winning the award, named in the honor of Merle Barker, transportation foreman for the school district until his death in March, 1970.

The award rules require that only those drivers nominated on an official nomination form shall be eligible for the award.

Request denied

The Michigan Liquor Control Commission has denied a Van Buren Township bar owner's request to sell liquor by the glass on Sundays after 2 p.m.

He is Orville R. McGlone, operator of The Hiway, located at 50778 Michigan Ave., Van Buren Township.

McGlone, holder of a Class C liquor license and dance permit, was denied approval because his business did not qualify for such authorization, the commission announced.

Nominations may be made by anyone living in, attending or working for the Van Buren School District.

Completed nominations must be submitted on or before June 15 and the nominations must be sent to the Belleville Area Lions Club, Merle Barker Memorial Award, P.O. Box 184, Belleville.

"This is not a popularity contest. The number of nominations is not significant, however, the content of the nomination will be used by the committee as the basis for selecting the recipient of the award," club officials said.

In submitting a nomination, consideration should be given to the following: driving ability, safety record, road courtesy, work record, student conduct, character, other contributions to school and community and other with an explanation, McKelvey reported.

The Lions Club will make the final decision in selecting the recipient based on the content of the nomination. The recipient of the award trophy will make the trophy available for display purposes at the request of the club.

In submitting nominations, list the name and state in 100 words or less why you are nominating the driver named for the Merle Barker Memorial Award.

To the Editor:

Reader thinks plays beneficial to students

To the editor:

Community response to Belleville High School's musical production "Brigadoon" was tremendous. After two and one-half months of self-discipline, it was indeed gratifying for the cast to play to appreciative audiences.

In addition to those directly responsible for a successful show, (cast and directors) a good many unsung heroes deserve recognition. Not the least of these are parents who made costumes, furnished transportation, and rescheduled family activities to accommodate their budding actors. They can be justifiably proud.

Members of the Chamber of Commerce unselfishly shared their advertising space to include "Brigadoon" information; and of course, the excellent publicity given by the Belleville Enterprise helped to fill the auditorium.

Producing a good musical is expensive. Royalties are high; material for sets and auditorium equipment must be purchased, etc. Is it worthwhile?

The educational experience for the students involved is invaluable; cultural advancement for the community is not measurable; but most of all, there is hope for the future as we see our dedicated youth perform in worthwhile activities!

County won't accept chief in police contract

With the passage of the resolution by the commissioners, Romulus can now decide whether the contract package is acceptable or not. The county-city proposal is further complicated by a suit initiated by the Romulus Police Officers Association, which seeks to block any merger of departments on the grounds that the Romulus City Charter requires a "city" police department.

RPOA lawyers insist that the county might just as well not sign a contract with the city, since they contend that the courts will invalidate it.

On the other hand, some parties feel that the court will probably take no action at all until it is determined that the county and city will, in fact, enter into a contract.

The commissioners rebuffed a long time before arriving at a final resolution, calling for Koch's exclusion and a 3 year contract.

William G. Suzore (D-22nd Dist.) asked "Why are we doing all this work if we can't enter into a legal contract?" He expressed a desire to wait until court action had been completed before reaching a final decision.

Wayne County Prosecutor William L. Cahalan said that the largest part of the struggle was between the city of Romulus and the RPOA. "It was my thinking," he said, "that we would stand back and let them have it and then wait until the dust cleared."

Although Wayne County is included in the policemen's lawsuit, it is a nominal inclusion only, Cahalan explained.

The RPOA claims that the question can be cleared up quickly if Romulus will file a motion for summary judgement. However, the city has not taken any action on the lawsuit and apparently none is planned.

Included in the present draft of the contract are provisions for maintaining seniority and accounting for Romulus police officers' present retirement and sick pay benefits.

If the Romulus City Council decides that the proposed package is acceptable to them, it will be returned to the Law Enforcement Committee and then passed on to the full Board of Commissioners.

If the contract is rejected, the council will be faced with the proposition of reorganizing and drastically strengthening a police force which has been termed inadequate by Robert Kahl, president of the Romulus Police Officers Association, and has also been criticized as lacking in certain areas by Chief Koch.

Q. Is there a state law that says a person must be buried in a Burial Vault or outer casing?
Mrs. J. Edwards

A. No, but it is a regulation set by most cemeteries today. The reason being that due to the caskets exposure to the elements, the ground above will sink or collapse several feet over a period of time because of pressure. Cemeteries maintain a set of regulations in an effort to insure public health, safety, and welfare.

Scouts plan action against litter problem

Paradoxically, as concern for the environment increases, roadside litter and individual slovenliness seem to have become ever more prevalent.

The current crop of adults is apparently destined to go down as the worst generation of litterbugs in history—unless the younger generation can shame them into changing their ways.

One important group among the younger generation, The Boy Scouts of America—all 6 million of them—will be out in force Saturday in observation of "Scouting Keep America Beautiful Day."

The nation's six million Boy Scouts will engage in a gigantic litter clean-up operation to focus public attention on the tremendous proportions of the problem. Hundreds of thousands of people in other organizations—industrial, conservation and governmental agencies—have pledged their active support.

They will make a point in their litter collection of separating from the trash such items as glass, aluminum, steel and newspaper that can be reused and thus reduce the drain on natural resources used in manufacturing those products.

Saturday's litter clean-up campaign of the Scouts is called, "Save Our American Resources," or SOAR.

In making the project a success, the Scouts are asking everyone to join in their effort to further the cause of litter prevention, waste disposal and recycling of used products.

It is a cheering thought to realize that, what fines and laws are unable to force in the way of litter prevention, the Boy Scouts may help accomplish through example and education.

In years gone by...

A look through The Daily Eagle files at news of Western Wayne County one, 15 and 25 years ago:

25 YEARS AGO

June 2, 1946 — Members of the local chapter of the Detroit Retail Grocers' Association, preparing for their next meeting, July 1, called for a united front against "aggression by the AFL," and urged "any merchant who has been threatened to stand his ground and we'll see that his case is taken to the Grand Jury."

Acting as spokesman for the group, Ernest Murphy said that he had been informed that "various merchants have been confronted with this 'join or else' edict."

The Wayne Unit of the American Legion Auxiliary has chosen Miss M.O. Moneita Emery of Elm street, Wayne, to attend the Girls' State Convention, June 25 to July 2 at the University of Michigan, Ann Arbor.

Miss Emery, a sophomore at Wayne High school, was selected by a committee of ten teachers.

With removed restrictions on transportation, many of the special excursions and trips held by the Department of Parks and Recreation before the war will be renewed again, Director Harry Ranch announced.

Included will be the Bob-Lo Island Park excursion by bus and boat and bus trip to Greenfield Village and the Detroit Zoo.

15 YEARS AGO

June 2, 1956 — With the extension of water and sewer lines in Nankin township going on day by day, the township has published its schedule of rates.

For new residential water connections there will be a debt service charge of $3 a quarter for 15 years or until $180 has been paid on all lots up to 60 feet in width. For lots over 60 feet, the debt service charge will be fired by the township at time of application.

The appointment of Siffrein M. Vass controller of the Mercury division was announced by F.C. Reith, general manager of the division and vice president of Ford Motor Company. Vass succeeds Paul F. Lorenz, whose appointment as executive assistant to Mr. Reith was announced recently.

Vass joined Ford Motor Company in October, 1947, and served in various capacities with the central finance staff prior to coming to Mercury division in July, 1955, until September when he was named controller of the manufacturing services division at the company's Rouge operations.

Registration day for the new Boys' Club saw the biggest turn-out of this kind in the history of Inkster.

Over 500 boys lined up bright and early in front of Erwin Jewelers on Michigan Ave. to register for the Boys' Club and get in on the baseball leagues and other recreational fun planned for the summer.

A Garden City 4-H Club member and three others from Wayne County went on a four-day Southeastern Michigan Conservation trip to the Twin Lakes 4-H camp at Traverse City.

The trip was sponsored by Wayne, Oakland and Macomb Counties.

The four from this area were Peter Cooke of Garden City, Terry Chappo of Wayne, and Pat Houk and Sally Mathis of Plymouth.

ONE YEAR AGO

It appears as though the Wayne City Council will approve raising the tax from 16.9 to 17.6 for the 1970-71 fiscal year. However, the surplus that was originally anticipated from this millage hike has turned into a deficit.

The adjustment in millage will provide approximately $36,000 in additional funds for a projected disbursement budget of $2,854,115. Last year the figure was $2,523,351.

In the span of one's life, three years isn't a long time.

Speaking of schools

Woman vs. IBM: student will win

By JUDY ROSEMERGY, Counselor,
South Junior High, Belleville

This year the junior high schools have followed the lead of the senior high and are taking advantage of the services of the machine... IBM. Sheer numbers, a combined enrollment of two thousand by the fall of '71, have led us to make use of its efficiency.

I was excited by the thought that we would be "automated". The machine would do all for us: it would schedule our students, do our statistics, score our tests, mail our report cards, keep our records, and many other services.

It was with some trepidation that I ventured with my fellow counselor to the Washtenaw County Intermediate School District Date Center (WCISD). It was a brand new building that housed the machine that would do so much... a fitting domicile for such a prodigy!

Moreover, the machine lives in air-conditioned splendor on false flooring with humidity regulated. It seems that it becomes temperamental in warmth and dampness (So do I!). I began thus to feel that we had something in common; the machine and I. Maybe, after all, we could communicate!

The people at the date center were extremely patient and helpful. My head whirled, however, with the new vocabulary I must learn: scanner sheets, 0 and P cards, deck, mark sense cards, data transmittals, conflict matrix, etc., etc., etc. I was certain that I would never understand it all and I could envision making an error that would cause the machine to blow a fuse and spew cards in all directions. (Somehow, at this point, I felt a secret satisfaction at the prospect of causing such an event.)

Time moved on, and I began to feel more confident.

In the Fall, we registered our new students in the old familiar manner and I felt in command of the situation. Then it became evident that these new charges of ours must be registered with the machine.

For me, it is a matter of meeting our new student, talking with him, trying to make him comfortable in a new school situation, assuring him of my help whenever he needs it and placing him in the classes which are most appropriate for him.

Registration with the machine is an entirely different proposition. We must assign the student a number; each class and teacher has a number. Even the classroom numbers are changed to accommodate date processing.

Lansing report

Financial matters delay abortion bill

Abortion reform has been sidetracked in the rush for a decision on the 1971-72 budget and an income tax increase to make it balance.

The reform bill has been gathering dust in the House social welfare and corrections committee since March 15.

Early reports that the committee was 6 to 3 against the bill haven't changed perceptibly, but pressures on Democrats to make the decision on the floor have diminished.

"Actually, I'm a little

By DON

encouraged," said Rep. Richard J. Allen (R-Ithaca), the bill's champion in the House. "Holding it in committee indicates they don't think it can be defeated on the floor."

The House is the last legislative stop for the bill, which legalizes abortions within the first 90 days of pregnancy if the woman has been a Michigan resident for 90 days.

It passed the Senate March 11 and, after a series of maneuvers by House Speaker William A. Ryan (D-Detroit), it was sent to the social services and corrections committee.

Rep. David Holmes (D-Detroit), committee chairman, held public hearings around the state during April. Ryan repeatedly said he expected a committee vote early in May.

But it didn't come and now legislative leaders are bogged down in budget and taxation talks in efforts to get the issues settled before state government starts a new fiscal year July 1 without a budget.

Allen now feels the abortion bill will be held back for a certain session of the legislature in the fall, after a short summer vacation recess.

He said the blockading of the bill in the House could encourage a petition campaign to place the issue on the ballot.

Meanwhile the Clergy Council on Problem Pregnancies in Michigan is helping 200 women arrange abortions in New York, where it is legal, each week.

Timediminishes all furors in Lansing, a major point when considering the abortion bill. It is hardly discussed anymore.

What Allen was saying is that the heat's off.

Our school rooms have a simple numbering system; they start with the number one and go through number thirty-three. It seems that the machine has three spaces and three spaces only, that must be filled. Room one becomes "oh-oh-one" (yes, we have an "oh-oh-seven") and the planning room for drafting becomes PLN.

The machine does not get flustered when we make errors; it merely records them and prints out the information on a separate sheet with cryptic comments such as: WONT and NM (no mark). The only way to face this situation is to dig out the papers and start again!

At present, the machine and I are at a stalemate; we tolerate each other. I realize that the school system receives much benefit from its aid. It saves us much money in clerical hours and gives teachers more time for personal involvements with students.

Counselors are relieved of hours of hand scoring of standardized tests, static compilation and hand scheduling. My battle with the machine has been a personal one: woman against automation.

We, as counselors, are primarily concerned with our students; we see them as emerging young people whose growth toward maturity we seek to aid. If IBM and I can come to some understanding whereby the above goals can be realized, then I concede.

Memorial parade suffers indifference

To the editor:

Sunday, May 23, Huron River Post 4434, Veterans of Foreign Wars held their annual Memorial Parade. This is not a new event, as they have been honoring their departed comrades in this fashion for twenty six years.

The date was announced in advance and all Belleville organizations were invited to participate. Transportation was furnished for those too old or too young to walk. Refreshments were served to all who participated.

As the line of march moved up Main St. only six flags were displayed and only a few of the viewers took the trouble to salute the flags in the parade or stand at attention during the playing of the National Anthem.

Surely, flags are not so expensive that they can't be afforded. True, it does take a little energy to display them. It took a lot of time, energy and expense to produce the parade, and booklets on "Flag Etiquette" are free for the asking.

Are the residents of Belleville so indifferent to the men, past and present, who have been willing to sacrifice their lives, if need be, to keep this country from suffering the destruction that war in this country would bring, that they cannot show proper respect?

Memorial Day, by its very name, is a day of dedication but this Country has made it a day of destitute.

I'd like to see this printed where everyone would see it, not as a letter to the editor, but as a letter to the people.

Mildred Hawley, americanism chairman,
Ladies Auxiliary to Post 4434.

Reader urges look at amendment plan

To the editor:

The instrument of the Tax Revolt is here: it is the Liberty Amendment. The Liberty Amendment (L.A.) would abolish the personal Federal Income Tax and leave the Fed in better financial shape than it is now! How about that! Well, let's see how.

First, the L.A. would force the Fed to sell all its unconstitutionally operated business enterprises, land holdings, manufacturing and service facilities which would include the Tennessee Valley Authority and about 700 others.

The losses sustained by the Fed in operating the above illegal enterprises actually exceeds the amount taken in yearly in personal income taxes. Therefore, the sale of all of these operations back to the private sector would obviate the necessity to tax personal incomes!

The revenue derived from the sales would, it is estimated, pay about 3% of the national debt upon which we are paying roughly $40,000 per minute interest (and that's rough on those who have to pay it). For instance, the Fed owns over 40 percent of the land area of America. The Constitution forbids such Federal activity in both Article IX and X of the Amendments to the Constitution. All lands held unconstitutionally would be sold to private individuals and thus the private owners would pay land and school taxes that the Fed doesn't and it would create a bonanza for local governments struggling to raise revenues.

But, the individual would be the greatest benefactor because every working man or woman would get a 20 percent or greater pay raise and the Fed would have to get its nose out of everyone's business and make the snoopers get gainfully employed.

It would also give a great boost to the middle class in that it would actually be a great anti-trust law. Monopoly corporations would still be taxed, but the individual owner of businesses — the great American Middle Class — would have the tax advantage thus encouraging individual inventiveness and enterprise which made America great in the first place.

At long last the ambitious would not have their incentive crushed by overburdening taxes and the self-reliant enterprising American would again create more wealth and prosperity than has ever been seen on earth, as long as he is left alone to do so by a repressive government.

More than twenty years ago Mr. Willis Stone, an industrial engineer began studying Fed operations and expenditures in depth. The profligate waste astounded him, but few men would have done what he did; he dedicated the remainder of his life to correct this travesty by writing the Liberty Amendment.

Seven states have already passed the L.A. resolutions and it is now before the Michigan Senate and House and is in Committee. Rep. Friske has introduced it in the House and Sen. Fleming in the Senate. Write letters supporting the L.A. to your Senator and Representative and the above gentlemen in support of their noble efforts.

Mr. Stone will be in Michigan giving speeches and he will testify before the appropriate committees of the Legislature. His first appearance will be at Belleville High School June 7, at 7:30 p.m. Tickets are $1.50 in advance (Stone Speech, Box 102, Belleville, Michigan, 48111) or $2 at the door the night of the speech.

If you want to solve the big tax problem, take an honest look at the Liberty Amendment.

Three young actors salvage 'Red Sky'

By HOWARD ALLEN
Eagle Movie Critic

The honest efforts of three young actors, who bring a well-defined portrayal of three teenagers in a small New Mexican town during World War II in Hal Wallis' "Red Sky at Morning," redeem an overlong and not wholly even film by Marguerite Roberts from the Richard Bradford novel.

Frank Arnold (Richard Crenna) brings his son, Josh, (Richard Thomas) and neurotic, coddled wife (Claire Bloom) from the protective womb of her Alabama family to settle him on his New Mexico ranch before joining his ship in the Pacific in 1944 and then departs forever to leave his son with the problems of growing up among the rugged but beautifully photographed western wilds.

When Josh isn't dealing with his mother and her sponging cousin from Alabama, Jimbob Buel (John Colicos), who may or may not be her lover, he is attempting to come to grips with his own new world. In this he has two allies, Steenie Moreno (Desi Arnaz, Jr.) and Marcia Davidson, (Cathy Burns) and it is when these three are together that the film is most alive.

If director James Goldstone is not always able to keep the threads of his film securely knotted he at least offers a highly reasonable picture of what it was like to exist in a Mexican-American community during World War II.

Josh's biggest problem is two Mexicans who delight in beating the living daylight out of him on every occasion, but he must face such difficulties as the shotgun-toting father of two car-mad nymphets named Veneri Ann and Velva Mae Cloyd and a growing relationship with Marcia who masks her emotions with a hardboiled exterior.

The film loses control with several shifts in tempo ranging from the Disneyesque studies of youths and nature to the Tennessee Williamsish study of the drunken mother and her superfluous cousin to wholly unneeded and distracting reinforcements like an artist (Harry Guardino) who was a friend of Josh's father and who makes the boy a part of his world.

It is hard to reconcile this with such honest and vivid scenes as that of Marcia and Steenie daring Josh to join their tradition of approaching the rotting carcass of a dead cow and with the fine and tender performances of Thomas, Arnaz and Miss Burns.

"Red Sky at Morning" is far too much of a sometimes good thing.

At Wayne State University

Festival is under way

The sixth annual Wayne State University June Music Festival is offering seven choral and instrumental concerts now through June 11.

A variety of musical styles and periods will be represented with particular emphasis on contemporary music. Several world premieres and commissioned works will be featured.

The Women's Choral, under the direction of Dennis Tini, began the Festival yesterday with "Today and Tomorrow", a program of serious and popular contemporary music.

Harold Arnoldi leads the Symphonic Concert Band tonight in a program at 8:30 p.m. in the Rackham Auditorium located at Woodward and Farnsworth opposite the South Wing of the Detroit Institute of Arts. Well lighted parking areas are conveniently located nearby.

Vivaldi's "Concerto for Piccolo" will be featured with Joanne Peters as soloist. Other selections will include Stravinsky's "Fire Bird Suite" and a new work, "Statement" by Brent Heisinger, premiered February, 1971 under the baton of Mr. Arnoldi on the west coast at the California Band Directors Clinic.

On Friday, Morris Hochberg conducts the WSU

Symphony. Works to be performed include a Mozart Symphony, a concerto for viola, and Berlioz' "Harold in Italy", a symphony in four parts with viola solo. Ernest Wallfisch, former member of the Detroit Symphony, and a violist of international prominence, will be guest soloist. The concert is at 8:30 p.m. in the WSU Community Arts Auditorium.

The second week of the June Music Festival opens with a Faculty Chamber Concert on Sunday at 3:30 p.m. in the WSU Community Arts Auditorium. A highlight of this concert will be the world premiere of "Cables 87" by Frank Retzel, a WSU senior candidate for the degree of bachelor of music in theory and composition. The text is the poem No. 87 from "Cables to the Ace" by Thomas Merton, a trappist monk, philosopher and poet, who died in 1968. Other works on this faculty concert are by Poulenc and Schubert.

"An Evening of Chamber Music" will be presented by the Chamber Singers conducted by Harry Langford on Tuesday, June 8, at 8:30 p.m. in the WSU Community Arts Auditorium. Works will include chamber music for chorus and chamber orchestra from the Renaissance and contemporary periods. The

'Support Your Gunfighter' is an enjoyable sequel

By HOWARD ALLEN

Eagle Movie Critic

Just when the spate of western comedies sparked by "Cat Ballou" seemed to have sunk to the unbearably raunchy level of "Dingus Magee," "Support Your Local Sheriff" came along like a breath of fresh air. In most cases sequels aren't worth the effort but "Support Your Local Gunfighter" is the rare exception, a thoroughly enjoyable romp.

Director Burt Kennedy has James Garner back as Latigo Smith, the amiable angleman and Jack Elam is again his sidekick, this time a down and out mug, Jug Mya, who, whom Latigo cons into posing as Swifty Morgan, the most menacing gunman in the west.

Some of the complications are predictable. Of course Latigo and Jug are unmasked and of course the real Swifty, played stony-faced in a parody of all menacing gunman by Chuck Connors, comes to town for a showdown with the polecat whose been using his name. Meanwhile Latigo is dodging women, two dance hall proprietresses whom he has conned, Joan Blondell and

Marie Windsor, and Patience Barton, the spitfire daughter of the mine owner who shoots up the entire town at the least suggestion of an off-color remark.

SOMETHING VERY NEW and great is happening at a spot called VARGO'S, at 30325 McNichols, in Livonia. We knew it in years gone by as "Danny's Suburban Chop House" and enjoyed it then ... but that didn't compare with NOW! We lost track of it for awhile, when they called it "Rampart St." ... But we were down 6 Mi. Rd. between Merriman & Middlebelt last week, just at dinner time and there "was!" "Shall we?" I sez to the fluff ... and, "We gotta!" she pleaded! IF you've never been there before ... it's just great as soon as you get inside. BUT IF you've never been there in the past, and think you know everything about Gourmet Dining ... TRY IT NOW! DON and PATRICIA VARGO are the world's greatest Hosts. Every Customer is the first one. It's just like that. The things you'd go clear to the Ocean for ... like Soft Shell Crabs (these were THE best we'd had since about 25 years ago in Baltimore!) ... the sounds that almost don't happen any more ... like an Organ that makes like a 20 piece Combo and a drummer who's really part Nightingale ... the SERVICE and attention you get ... the rare, rare things Chef Mario Gogoon (someday we'll devote a Column just to this guy!) turns out ... these are all part of what's happening! and it's happening to Family kinda people ... At VARGO'S ... every dinner time!

MEMORIAL DAY PICNICS having come 'n gone ... and Summer being officially started ... people suddenly get to feeling "set adrift" ... with the small stuff not yet outta school ... and the vacation leave not due for what seems like a milliyun-daze-more ... right? THEN, or rather N.O.W. it's time to head for THE SEVEN SEAS!! In spite of the name which smacks of good stuff like specially prepared Lobster, you travel by land! If you already live in Ypsi...hey, you're there! But if you don't...and you really want to go a-w-a-y without a major trip. THE SEVEN SEAS is just a few minutes out Michigan. The address is 1435 E. MICHIGAN, YPSILANTI. There's excellent seating ... excellent parking AND MORE. The Seven Seas is a SINGALONG, which adds to the "vacation" feeling, just because you're part of the fun! And fun it is! Even if you THINK you're not the type...gwan out and try it! You'll find yourself just maybe humming for awhile ... then singing (after all, nobody can hear me with all this music going on!) THEN singing with the Mike in hand. ("Is this really me?") Yep, the real you has been waiting for this kind of Fun Place all along! Dee, at the Organ, backs you up ... and sings along too. Her Husband, Bob, keeps you goin' ... and the applause doesn't surprise you, after all. (You always knew you were great!) It's the "Mini-Vacation" just around the corner ... that'll get to be a habit! Sail on out!

THEN THERE'RE THE LISTENERS! And the folks who like to, maybe, Singalong one night ... but sit back and admire A MASTER when the opportunity presents itself. And we would call an evening at THE DANISH INN (32305 Grand River, in Farmington), just such an "Opportunity". On Tuesdays through Saturdays Showman Pat Flowers (we useta listen at Baker's Keyboard) holds forth and admirers come from all over Michigan to enjoy! Me, I date back to the "Boogie" ... and Pat "owns" Boogie Music. But you can ask for Chopin, Beethoven, Brahms ... Fats Waller, real New Orleans ... Hoagie Carmichael ... there's nothing "The Man can't do!" Pat came up from Detroit's old Cass Tech ... to the elite Juilliard School in New York ... to Star Recording Artist with Decca, Majestic and RCA Victor. He's from Vegas ... he's from the big beautiful places ... he's from Heaven! He sounds like "King" Cole besides. Add THAT to a for-real Danish Dinner Menu and Wines like Kirnava and Kijafa ... or Beers like Tuborg and Carlsberg ... and even if you showed up for Dinner at 5 p.m. ... you'll look up with surprise when you ask "You mean you're closing ALREADY???" Because when you dine at The Danish Inn ... when you fall under Pat Flower's spell again ... you DON'T wanna go home!

TWO COINS FOUND A FOUNTAIN of youth and happiness and frolic ... when Frank & Lucille Skrumbellos added up a successful Coin Business ... a thousand pals from all the years of just liking people ... and a lifelong dream to own just such a place as THE GOLDEN COIN, at 1870 S. Wayne Rd., in Westland! And the dream became a reality, as they incorporated everything they'd ever planned or hoped for into The Golden Coin. Every nail in the place is there for a reason. Every piece of the Decor has its own special meaning, be it the bass-relief symbolic of their Family ... the wall clock from Poppa Turco ... a gift from the hearts of the Employees ... or one of a thousand gimmicks Lou dreams up for special Holidays! When you get to The Golden Coin ... you know you're Home! Everybody knows everybody. If they don't the first time ... they do the next time. Because you ALWAYS come back. You may have a 179c Fifteen-Star Half Dollar ... or you may have a yen for a steak as big as a plate. You may want some friendly conversation ... or a mountain of Strawberry Shortcake ... or a bit of Libation. It's there. If you're in or around Westland, The Golden Coin is "Where it's at". And there's dancing. And I oughta know. And listen, if you recognize Cap Patric at THIS one ... I'll waltz ya around till y-o-u buy the drinks. Some guys have it and some don't, that's all. And at The Coin ... that's where us guys who have it ... keep it charged up!

THE CONTINENTAL TOUCH ... that TRUE elegance of Service where SEVEN languages are spoken and you can bring your Client for Lunch...order Dinner in an Executive Suite for Company meetings...or bring a WHOLE FAMILY to the Sunday Buffet, which is a we thought-of-everything sort of Buffet ... means ONLY one place: THE MELODY LANE MOTEL, at 9301 S. Telegraph, in Taylor. Owners Frank Osti and Heinz Mahler are always on hand to see that superiority is maintained ... and the only thing you might NOT be able to figure out, is which of them has the most beautiful Wife! (As it happens, Janine and Eleanor are twin sisters!) The background of these fine people in Hotel and Dining Service is most extensive, both in this and other countries. We sat, sort of open-mouthed-with-wonder, but knowing for certain that this is the way it is, while Heinz Mahler explained that he had recently been to Switzerland, where he decided that Swiss Chocolate was what he preferred for his "Guests", since he knows it to be the world's best ... and that he was looking into importing it. This, mind you, amounts to searching the World to bring you the most excellent quality available! Yet it's standard with the Mahlers and Osti! And The Melody Lane is just great for that overnight getaway, that completely-away-from-the-Kids-and-Office, (yet not too far for emergencies) that you've always dreamed about! There just isn't anything you can think of that isn't even nicer there! For openers: do the Sunday Buffet bit. We'll give you some more ideas next time!

IF YOU'RE A C-B-OPERATOR and you hear someone talking about a BIG 10-4, they're "talking you in" to THE CANTERBURY KITCHEN, at 27281 Grand River in Redford. So just 10-5 (pass the word along) that The Omelette Kid (Who's also Mgr. Charles Mayo, famous for a hundred more dishes that Omelettes)...is feeding (would you believe???) Frog Eyes...Red Dog...Tear Drop...Little Beaver...Party Girl...Tricky Dicky...Miss Peach...and these are for real! Or you'll find a whole band, maybe with Guitars still around the neck...like "The Camel Drivers"...across the desert from wherever they've been playing...to eat REAL food! Or you'll find a gang from "Redford Lanes" throwing 3's & 8's...which is Clitzen's Band Jargon for Love & Kisses. And "Ramrod" will wave his spoon and holler "10-20"...which means "You're Home!!" It's wild and wacky...but Friday & Saturday, from midnight on (and on and on and on, because they're open 24 hours) this is what you'll run into. Now listen, you know this's a something else kinda Colyum. That's why you're reading it. So if you want something different, fer baby you just found it! And if you want something different for the tummy: consider a treat from their oldie "Fryer" Tuck...or meet up with their "Earl of Sandwich"...or order from "Ye Grill & Griddle". But whatever you do ... DON'T miss "The Omelette Kid's" inspirations. He'll cook ya up a good one. I'm on my way there now...for a "Texas Breakfast". Meet me there...I'll buy yours!

..NO-OO-O HONEY...I didn't forgetcha! I just saved you for last because I like you best ... like Dessert, see?? I KNOW you're lookin' for just the kinda place where you take the kids and let them hair down and meet the girls and wear your slacks! I know you get up sometimes in the middle of the night and shake Poppa and say, "I wanna Fishwich". OF COURSE, I gotta place for you. Right in my heart ... and right at VICTOR'S, 34410 Ford Rd., Out Westland Way! It's an anytime place, okay? If you're in the mood for Julienne Salad... or Cherry Pie Ala Mode ... or "today's taste teaser" (that's the secret one) ... and you're NOT in the mood to put on your from-the-wig-down-whole bit ... but you just DON'T feel like cookin' ... VICTOR'S is right there waiting for you. And you can even wake up the Baby. If he's gonna grow up readin' this Column ... you might as well teach the kid to run around nights! Because Vic has a "Kiddie Korner". (He personally recommends that you, like, bring them in the daytime ... it's only me that does things upside sideways.) But he's ALWAYS THERE! Seven Days ... 24 hours ... anything from soup du jour to milk shakes. Victor's, that's our all the time place. Tear this one out and keep it in your wallet. Right next to my pitcher. You might just recognize me ... and you-know-what! Especially at Vic Ravio's!!

Movies of the Ngorongoro Crater and the Serengeti Plain showed animals in their natural environment and proved to the children that there are many wild animals in these regions.

After the showing the children were allowed to view artifacts from the area visited by Carvings, spears, jewelry and material brought African art closer to the children.

One second grader asked how far away Africa was, stating that he wanted to visit there too. When told by Ruzzin that it was about 6,000 miles away, all the inquirer could say was, "Wow!"

A THOUGHT TO REMEMBER

A family found this verse in personal papers and graciously gave permission to publish it.

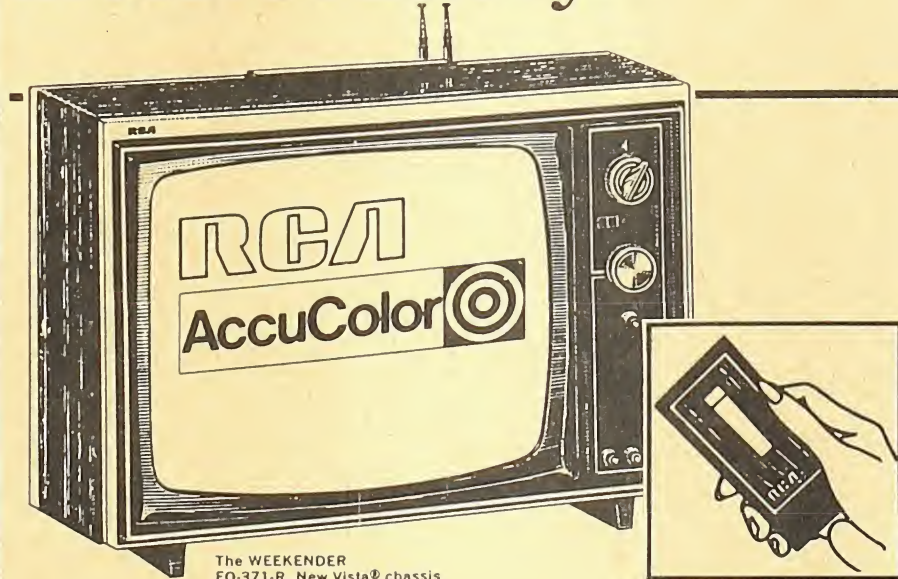

I've a wonderful boy, and I say to him, "Son—
Be fair and be square in the race you must run.
Be brave if you lose and be meek if you win.
Be better and nobler than I've ever been.
Be honest and noble in all that you do
And honor the name I have given to you.
We will grow up together, I'll too be a boy
And share in your trouble and share in your joy.
We'll work out our problems together and then
We will lay out our plans when we both will be men.
And oh, what a wonderful joy this will be,
No pleasure in life could be greater for me."

We hope this verse opens treasured avenues of family thought for you. Incidentally, we don't know who wrote the poem. If you happen to know, will you be kind enough, please, to write and let us know?

Pettus is best in 4 All-Area events

By TOM MOORADIAN
Sports Writer

Garrade Pettus made his final appearance last night in the All-Area Track Meet. And the 17-year-old Belleville senior made sure that friend and foe alike would not soon forget him. Pettus captured four of the 12 individual events, and if he were permitted to compete in a fifth, he probably would have won another first place trophy—but, thank goodness, sighed many, that four was the limit. The stellar athlete ran a 15.1 to take the high hurdles. He then raced to a 20.2 for a first place in the lows and also leaped 6 feet, 3 inches in the high jump, and broad jumped 21 feet, 6½ inches for other first places. "He's something else, isn't he," said Belleville Coach Ken Head afterwards. "We're sure going to miss him next year, you can count on that." So are your rivals, Ken. The meet, held in shivering weather at Garden City West where a disappointing handful of avid fans showed up to watch the competition, was not a disappointment for those who competed. The competition was outstanding.

Though Garrade managed to pick up four first place trophies, he was pushed by his rivals who were close behind the blue chip Tiger star in all events. One of the closest and thrilling events of the evening was the 220-yard dash where the "photo finish" ended in a victory for Livonia Franklin's Mike Filarecki who was clocked at 22.9. One stride behind was teammate Ken Yuhasz, who had a 23.0 and also in on the photo was Garden City West's Dale Halliwell. He had a 23.1. Livonia Franklin had three other individual events winners, along with the 880-yard relay. Yuhasz hit the tape first in the 100-yard dash, covering the distance in 10.4. Teammate Mike Jinnett climaxed an outstanding prep career by taking the quarter-mile. Jinnett, who has been accepted for the Naval Academy, ran a 50.2 for his first place trophy. Jim Craig, another Livonia Franklin athlete, tossed the shot 53 feet, 8 inches to beat out his closest rival, sophomore Romulus athlete, Daryl Gooden, who had a put of 47 feet, 6 inches.

In another close one, Livonia Franklin's Jinnett, Yuhasz, Filarecki and Mike McKindles were able to beat Robichaud to the wire in the 880-yard relay, the winner traveling the distance in 1:31.0 as compared to Robichaud's 1:31.2.

Cherry Hill, which took two individual firsts and the mile relay posted a West track record in the latter event with Lou Hatzilias, Phil Seibold, Rick Lollo and Kim Renas. The foursome was clocked in 3:25.0. Their nearest rival was Livonia Franklin which was timed in 3:27.3.

Seibold, a second place finisher in the half-mile recently at the Class A state finals, decided to go after the mile trophy, a prize that eluded him last year. An "outsider" from Garden City beat him across the finish line. Meanwhile, Hatzilias was given a "carte blanche" for the 880-yard run and he used it. Hatzilias placed first with 1:59.6.

John Glenn was represented on this year's mythical team by Al Borovsky, who vaulted 12 feet, 6 inches to win first place honors. Borovsky's bid for the West track record fell short when he missed on his three attempts at 13 feet.

The anticipated showdown between Belleville's distance artist Jon Cross and Livonia Churchill's Dennis Kurtis didn't materialize as the Livonian wasn't in the field. Cross was the lone finalist to break the 10 minute barrier in the 2-mile run as he posted a 9:41.2 to claim top honors. St. Mary's of Wayne's Peter Lentine placed second in the event with a 10:04.7.

The meet was co-sponsored by The Daily Eagle, the Wayne Jaycees and several area Jaycees organizations. The top performers in each event were presented with trophies, while second thru sixth place finishers were awarded medals.

Schools which were represented in the 1971 All-Area Track and Field Meet were: Garden City West, Garden City East, Livonia Franklin, Livonia Churchill, Inkster, Dearborn Heights Robichaud, Cherry Hill, Wayne Memorial, John Glenn, Belleville, New Boston Huron Romulus and Wayne St. Mary's.

The Third Annual All-Area Track Meet broke at least a couple of records last night: It was the coldest of the three meets.

It also was the best organized.

For the former record we will have to thank Bill Pinnell, athletic director at Garden City West High School, the Wayne Jaycees, headed by Jim Thompson, and a group of other Jaycees who gave willingly of their time. Their organizational efforts did not go to naught.

And while we are thanking people, let's not forget Dick [Name], who headed the group of officials. (It'll be the last time I ever criticize that motley group.) Thanks again.

Speaking of Pinnell, that sandy-haired gentleman who just happens to have graduated from Detroit Western High school, my old alma mater's rival (Southwestern), it is rumored that he's bowing out as head track coach, relinquishing his position to assistant Bob Lee.

Pinnell, the only track coach the eight-year-old high school has known, will continue to coach the cross country squad, but the athletic directorship takes too much of his time so, he's stepping down to devote all of his time to heading the physical education department.

Lee, his rookie assistant, was an outstanding athlete at Detroit Thurston and is a graduate of Central Michigan University. Though we haven't had a chance to meet with the rookie West coach, we know his voice well. Bob regularly phoned in the scores of all West's track meets this year.

There were plenty of Tigers and former Tigers on hand yesterday at the All-Area meet. The gregarious Bob Draheim who is articulate in all subjects, especially football, was strolling around the track minus (he sez) 20 pounds. (He's trimmed down to a slim 200 plus).

Draheim figures he'll field his best football team this year and his optimism stems from a junior varsity squad which has won the Tri-River Conference title for the past two years and has compiled a 15-2 over-all record in that span.

By the way, Kirk Lewis, a hefty 200-pound three-sports man will co-captain the Tiger grid squad this year. He and Tom Jones have the job. Kirk also will be captain of the basketball team and that's a first—a first time any athlete has served as captain to two sports at West High.

Those rumors were again flying at the meet that "Garden City East has been accepted in the Northwest Suburban Conference and will drop out this year from the Mid-Wayne." Since there was no one there to deny or confirm the rumor, I asked Bernie Ingle, athletic director at Dearborn Heights Robichaud if the Mid-Wayne was losing any members this year.

"I saw Benjamin McLain, the principal of our school a couple of hours ago and since he is president of the conference I am sure he would have informed us if that were a fact.

"To my knowledge, the Mid-Wayne Conference will be the same as it has been in the past, plus Wayne Memorial, which has been committed to play in the league this coming season."

Speaking of leagues—that's something Romulus High doesn't have and track coach Jesse Meriweather feels it will "definitely be detrimental to our sports program."

Athletes look forward to competing on the conference level and playing for conference titles. It is an added incentive which we are now left without.

Romulus was affiliated with the Twin Valley, but it disbanded. The Eagles will play an independent schedule next fall.

A former track and basketball star in Michigan City, Indiana, Jesse attended Western Michigan University where he earned his bachelor of science degree.

He was good enough in basketball to earn a scholarship. At Romulus, he's teaching a course in Black Studies.

Meriweather, like many of us, is concerned about that invisible line that has caused a schism between black and white high schools.

"Few will agree, but I feel all of the leagues are now being aligned into black and white leagues, and is that a solution to our problems?" he asked.

"I think it is time for people to quit fooling one another and face up to reality before reality explodes."

Holmes is 'perfect' Coach of the Year

Livonia Franklin has gone from rags-to-riches in track. And the prosperity is due to the efforts of head coach Bob Holmes who in his three-year tenure has produced two Northwest Suburban Conference track championship teams. This year the Patriots had a perfect dual meet record, the first in the school's 12-year history.

Holmes' efforts have not gone unnoticed. When his colleagues were asked by The Daily Eagle, whom did they feel deserved the Coach of the Year award, the response was almost unanimous. They named Holmes.

Holmes, 32, inherited the Patriots from Dave Juhnke in 1969 after serving two years as an assistant coach. A former track and basketball star at Wayne State University, Holmes went to work on the squad that finished below .500 in the league prior to the year he took over.

"I want the kids who come out for our team to have fun and to know that we are sincerely interested in them," said Holmes. "Track is a lot of work and if you can't add a little fun to what you're doing you definitely will have problems."

The bit of philosophy apparently is working. At Franklin, one of the largest groups of athletes to compete in any sport is lured to track. It also could be Holmes' charisma.

A soft-spoken fundamentalist, Bob has been able to generate a lot of enthusiasm. His athletes evidently do enjoy the grueling task of training for sport that demands plenty of discipline.

If rivals feel that Franklin's track success is ephemeral, a word of caution: this year's team was basically a junior club.

"We have the nucleus of a real fine team coming back next year."

So next year could be another outstanding year for the Patriots. And the next. And the next.

Prep golfers eye championships

Though most high school golfing leagues have tucked away their clubs until autumns, there still remains on the prep agenda the business of finding the 1971 Western Wayne Invitational champ.

Seven teams will again make up the field which will compete for the title on June 4 at Salem Hills County Club.

And you could flip a coin to find a favorite in that field which this year will be made up of Belleville, Cherry Hill, Wayne Memorial, John Glenn, Livonia Franklin, Garden City West and Garden City East.

West, floundering most of the dual meet season, is the defending champ and will have to shave off a lot of strokes if the Tigers hope to repeat this year.

Eying the throne presently occupied by West are Belleville, which has compiled an impressive 10-4 over-all record, and Livonia Franklin, a seventh place finisher at the recently concluded regionals.

The invitational, which is co-sponsored by The Daily Eagle, is based on the low team score of four players. The golfers will play 18-holes and tee time has been scheduled for 10 a.m.

The invitational winner is presented a team trophy while members of the team are awarded medals. There also is a medal for the individual low score (medalist.)

As in the past, flights will be set up for athletic directors, and coaches. There will be a celebrity flight if enough golfers are on hand.

"Last year we had plenty of calls after the meet was run from persons who said they wanted to play in the tournament," said Harry Hidenfelter, meet manager. "We hope that these players will step forward now and not wait until the last day to let us know if they want to play or not."

Call for Romulus Little Leaguers

The Romulus Athletic Club asks that boys interested in participating in the Romulus Little League football program pick up an entry blank at any one of Romulus' elementary schools and return it to the Romulus Athletic Club, PO Box 6, Romulus as soon as possible.

Boys will be chosen on a first come, first served basis and must be between the ages of nine and 12 and weigh between 85 and 125 pounds and live within the city limits of Romulus in order to be eligible. A $10 entry fee is required.

Teams will play an eight game, inter-city conference schedule. Competition will be in the Western Suburban Junior Football League.

Approximately 105 boys are needed to fill the program's requirements.

The first practice session is set for August 16 and contact will begin in September. Interested boys are asked to fill out and return applications now in order to complete necessary paper work and to insure themselves a spot on a team.

Belleville LL begins action

Belleville Little Leaguers got into the swing of things as action opened up on all fronts last week. Here are some of the highlights of the week:

The Mets and Cubs game ended in an 8-all deadlock and the game will have to be replayed in July. Ron English is one of the consistent leaders for the Mets. He has been a standout behind the plate, and at the plate he hammered a grand slam homer.

The Braves eked out a 4-1 victory over the Pirates as a strong pitching performance by Dan Peterson, who turned in a no-hitter and walked none, gave him a personal triumph.

The Braves infield committed two errors which led to the Pirates' unearned run. Incidentally that new team in the National League isn't the Braves as previously reported but the Astros.

The Giants overwhelmed the Cardinals 13-1 as pitcher Dave Lundell chalked up the win. Lance MacArthur belted a homer and double for the winners.

Morgan Manor took over first place in the Romulus Adult Softball League with a 9 to 4 win last Thursday over the Romulus Refugees and a close 8 to 7 win over Five Points on Tuesday.

Anchor Block dropped a half-game back, winning easily Thursday 22 to 1 over Five Points, but, on Tuesday, Anchor and Alden Electric staged a slugfest ending in a 19 to 19 standoff. The game was called after seven innings due to darkness.

Dan Peterlin led Alden's 26 hit attack with a pair of home runs, while Anchor's 22 hits were featured by Dan Skiffs home run. Bob Martin pitched for Aldens and Chuck Hazen worked for Anchor Block.

Walters Bar rallied to defeat Spearman's 16 to 12 Tuesday. Trailing 9 to 8 in the 6th Zbikowski tripled with two mates aboard to move Walters in front and Walters went on to record the win. George Coughlin was the winning pitcher.

Romulus Progressive outthit Cue Corners 12 to 7 but could only score once and Cue Corners won 4 to 1. Cur Corners scored twice in the second on singles by John Haney, Gary Hubbard and Polance and sacrifice fly by Campbell.

The Corners added two more in the third when Armstrong reached first on an error and came home in front of Wrightheads triple. Wrighthead scored when the relay from the outfield skidded in the mud at third.

Progressive scored its lone run in the 5th when Jim Halcomb singled moving to second on a throwing error and scoring on Walt Drewno's single. Drewno had a perfect day at bat going 4 for 4.

Fred Eberline also reached base safely 4 times for Progressive with 2 singles, a walk and reaching once on an error. Norm McLennon picked up the win and Al Ellis was charged with the loss.

Romulus wins final Twin Valley crown

By DANN BARKUME
Sports Writer

Romulus captured its first Twin Valley Conference baseball title since 1968 last Thursday by defeating league foe Willow Run 2-1 in 10 innings behind the strong pitching of senior Leighton Ballard.

Following the victory, Coach Lowell Johnson and every member of the Eagle squad participated in a wild victory celebration that lasted on into the evening.

Though Romulus still has a TVC league game on tap with Ecorse next week, the victory over Willow Run insured them of the title.

Romulus had the bases loaded in the 10th inning with one out and Ken McMann at the plate. McMann whacked a ground ball to third. The relay to home plate caused a force out and the Flyer catcher wheeled to throw to first base to complete the double play.

McMann collided with the first baseman, who was blocking the line in an attempt to snare the catcher's throw, and both fell hard to the ground.

The ball skipped into right field and allowed Virgil Smith to scamper home from second base with the winning run.

Smith also scored the other run for Romulus, it came in the fifth inning. Willow Run managed its only score of the contest in the fifth frame as well.

Smith led Romulus at the plate, collecting two of the team's six hits in five trips to the plate. Ballard fanned 14 Flyers and walked only one en route to picking up his 11th victory of the campaign. He held Willow Run to just four hits.

Earlier in the week, Romulus nipped the Panthers of River Rouge 2-0 as Ballard held the opposition to just two hits while striking out 10 and walking six. Ballard has recorded 137 strike outs in 94 1-3 innings of pitching so far this season.

Ballard joined Bill Ward for hitting honors as both connected for two hits in three trips. Ward knocked home both runs with his bat, one coming in the fourth inning and the other in the sixth.

Romulus has had good hitting all season long and Johnson credits the Eagles' success at the plate as one of the big reasons they won the conference title this season. Smith is belting the ball at a .450 clip over-all and is hitting an impressive .480 in league competition. Ward sports a .450 league batting mark and the rest of the squad displays an equal amount of power and precision at the plate.

Romulus has been able to come up with the big hit when they needed it all season long, enabling them to pull games out of the fire.

It was the second and final league championship for Johnson in nine years at the Eagles' helm. His other triumph came back in 1968.

The TVC will disband after the current school year and Romulus will play an independent schedule next year as the Eagles are unable to hook up with a new league as yet.

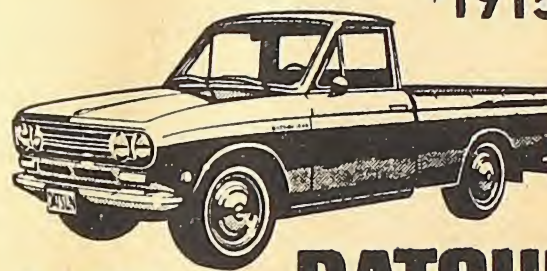

Johnson's appraisal of winning the championship was "...wonderful". He said his players this season were the greatest team he had ever worked with and he really working with them.

4-H youth exploration at university this month

Previous experience with the 4-H weather project is not necessary. Participants will learn to read and prepare weather maps involving rainfall, barometric pressure and temperature.

While at MSU, the 4-Hers will tour campus and the State Capitol, and will have their choice of recreational activities including swimming, tennis and other sports. There will also be leisure learning activities such as archery, karate, weight lifting and square dancing.

All participants will meet on the final day in the Spartan Stadium Concourse to demonstrate each of the different options. The public is welcome at this session.

Each participant in Youth Exploration Days was selected for his interest and commitment to a project or activity, a willingness to share new ideas with the club, ability to gain from the experience and leadership qualities.

Hamilton makes statement

R. Lynne Hamilton of 43009 E. Huron River Dr., Belleville, a candidate for a four-year trusteeship on the Van Buren Board of Education, announces his purpose in seeking this elected office.

"I feel there is a great need for an extended vocational program for both girls and boys. For the past two years I have enjoyed and learned from serving on the High School Curriculum Committee.

"Let's be fair and face the situation. The non college girl and boy needs more preparation to equip them for the future.

"We have a high percentage of young people who in the years to come will be providing the necessary services to society. We have a responsibility to these students in providing them with the required skills to operate within the labor market.

"What is truly important is that these young people have the opportunity to gain these essential skills so that they too can be satisfied and benefit from a double standard of living.

"All students must be encouraged to believe in themselves and to take pride in their talents and skills, thus making their community a greater place in which to live.

I appreciate this opportunity in my life long residency and as an active businessman to extend my efforts, energies and concern on behalf of the non college student. I need your support in this effort."

The two top scholars of this year's graduating class are Miss Bonnie K. Burger, this year's Valedictorian; and Miss Sandra Leigh Riney, who has been named Salutatorian.

Bonnie is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Byron K. Burger, 55 E. Spencer St., Belleville. She attended Elwell Elementary School where she was double promoted to Belleville Junior High School.

In senior high school she has majored in the studies of English, German, Science, Math and Social Studies.

Bonnie is an active member of the various clubs. Among these are the German Club, Biology Club, Spanish Club and she has been a member of the National Honor Society since 1969.

She has been a member of the German Club for four years and served as its vice president. At the present time she is Biology Club's secretary.

She will attend classes this fall at the Engineering School of the University of Michigan. She plans to become a Bio-Chemical Research Engineer. She has been designated as a Regents-Alumni Scholar for 1971.

Sandra Riney is the daughter of Mrs. J. M. Riney of Quirk Rd., and Mr. Lester M. Riney, of 31610 Cowan, Westland.

Sandra attended South Side Elementary School in Illinois during kindergarten and first grade, then attended Quirk Road Elementary School, South Junior High School and Belleville High School.

She has been a member of the Student Council in junior high school as well as a member of the Biology Club, Pep Club, National Honor Society and vice president and president of the French Club while in high school.

Wahl Chapter of the Women's Relief Corps (WRC). The winning poster was submitted by David Adams of Belleville, who was not present at time of picture taking. Mrs. Griffith is with Hene Hilton, 46214 Chatsworth, Belleville student, who two second places in the VFW portion of the contest display and a second place in the Corps section. The contest was held last Saturday.

Students study nutrition

The study of nutrition in conjunction with health was a recent classroom project of the fifth grade class at the Elwell Elementary School.

Class teacher Mrs. Marianne Cipkowski reported that the students learned the basic groupings of foods as well as the various food families.

"It is one thing to study something and another to practice it. Children learn best by doing and since they were studying foods, they thought that the best way to learn was to plan a meal," Mrs. Cipkowski said.

The class was broken into groups and the students then set about to plan an actual breakfast. Each group was to include a plan and the meal was to be a balanced meal.

On the "big day" the students arrived at school with their various contributions to the meal.

The students had the assistance of Mrs. Verdys Shephard and Mrs. Eldean Van Valkenburg, school cooks, who cooked the oatmeal.

Council approves sewers

The Romulus City Council has unanimously approved an agreement with the Cam Chem Co., 36345 Van Born Rd., allowing the firm to tap into the City of Wayne's sanitary sewer line and pay the City of Romulus 75 percent sewer use rate.

The agreement carried a stipulation that when Romulus sanitary sewer line becomes available, the firm will tap in within an 18-month period.

The city council authorized Mayor Hyle J. Carmichael to sign the pact for the city.

Water used for the sanitary sewer line is charged to the City of Romulus.

Staff gets addition

A teaching employment contract for Mrs. Marilyn Schaible of Waltz has been approved by the Huron School Board.

Mrs. Schaible will be an addition to the Huron School District's Staff for the 1971-72 school year.

Rotary's seal drive exceeds assigned quota

STUDENT COUNCIL AIDS SEAL DRIVE — The Huron Junior High School Student Council donated $30 to the Huron Township Easter Seal Campaign conducted by the New Boston Rotary Club. Brenda Frazier, student council president presents a $30 check to John Bardoni, chairman of the Easter Seal Campaign.

The New Boston Rotary Club's Easter Seal Drive has come to a close.

John Bardoni, chairman of the Easter Seal Campaign was pleased with the end results of money raising project. He said, when interviewed,

"I had a feeling we would go over our quota, as established by the Easter Seal Society; but I did not picture the amount would be so great."

The New Boston Rotary club recently presented Mrs. Jane Divereaux, executive secretary of the Easter Seal Society of Western Wayne County, Inkster, with a check in the amount of $950.63. This amount exceeds last years contribution to the Society by $300.

The four New Boston Rotarians in attendance at last Monday's banquet were John Bardoni, Easter Seal chairman, Gene Rakotz, president of the Rotary Club, Robert Carey, club's secretary and Ed Dulecki, member of the Easter Lilly Campaign.

Bardoni said today, "I wish to express the appreciation of the New Boston Rotary Club and myself to all of you who contributed in any way to the Easter Seal Campaign. We are fortunate to reside in a community that still thinks of the less fortunate and does something about making life more pleasant for them."

As reported recently by Mrs. Devereaux, the Easter Seal Society is still $12,000 short of their goal for this year.

Should anyone feel they can contribute a little more, please send your contribution to Easter Seal Society of Western Wayne County, 2545 Hyde Park, Dr., Inkster.

CAP members keep in training

The senior members of the Metro Emergency Services Squadron commanded by Lt. Edward DeZomits recently held a radio training program in lower Huron Metropolitan park for cadets of Wayne-Romulus and Cherryhill cadet squadrons.

Following the radio training, members went to Lansing for a communications meeting of all civil air patrol groups in Michigan.

The metro squadron held their monthly meeting at the Ford motor hanger at Metro Airport.

CAP-Civil Defense exercise scheduled

A joint Civil Defense-Civil Air Patrol exercise has been announced by Col. John R. Plants, director of the State Police and Civil Defense.

The two-day exercise, June 5 and 6, will test the capabilities of the CAP in support of mission, post attack and natural disaster according to Plants.

"Local CD directors and coordinators will be working with their respective Emergency Services Field coordinator and the nearest airport base commander," Plants said. "This operation will provide an opportunity to exercise communications, instructors, planning and the use of aerial missions."

Capital City Airport in Lansing will serve as State Headquarters Base for the operation that will involve satellite airport bases at St. Clair county, Bay City, Cadillac, Three Rivers and Menominee.

The exercise will be provided military support by the Michigan National Guard and will be graded for national scoring by a U.S. Air Force team from Wright Patterson AFB, Dayton, Ohio.

Company donates material

Huron Junior High School recently received a donation of a truck load of assorted pieces and sizes of exterior grade plywood from the V and G Fabrication Co. 36181 Sibley Rd., New Boston.

Victor Thalman, owner, donated the wood to the Junior High School shop classes for projects so that students would be able to obtain materials at no cost to themselves.

"It is public spirited actions by citizens like Mr. Thalman that enable children to broaden their school experiences at no cost to the district," said David Schultz, school principal, who with George Hennig, counselor made a special trip to the factory to pick up the material.

Matrons discuss child care

Romulus School Social Worker Mrs. Borah Bender met with the Young Matrons Club members recently and gave some suggestions about meeting the needs of the young child in developing self esteem, establishing good habits and attitudes.

Mrs. Bender encouraged more emphasis on the "do's" and less emphasis on the "don'ts" with attention to being consistent. "Children need to know what you expect," she said.

Her talk was followed by a question and answer session.

A STEP AGAINST POLLUTION — Gary Pickering (left), a representative of Romulus' Scientific Products Company, explains the use of the firm's Atomic Absorption Spectrophotometer, a device for measuring pollutants in the air. The item was one of many displayed last week during a seminar by the company at the Hilton Inn. Getting his indoctrination is Hilton General Manager Tony Muto.

Anti-pollution devices shown by company

Modern devices of varying kinds for the control and analysis of environmental pollutants were on display Friday at the Hilton Inn in Romulus.

The displays and seminars were sponsored by the Scientific Products Co., a distributing firm, of Romulus. Most of the products seen were monitoring devices to gauge the amount of pollution in the air and water.

The complex equipment would be used by industry, governmental health organizations and local municipalities to check the quality of their air and water.

More than 22 national manufacturers were represented by displays.

Gary Pickering, a spokesman for Scientific Products, said the equipment ranged in price from $495.00 to $20,000 and could be used in waste water treatment, air pollution control and other environmental protection projects.

One device shown was an atomic absorption spectrophotometer, built by Corning Instruments, that measures the amount of metal in a solution.

The machine can be used to check the amount of toxic wastes such as lead, zinc and nickel in water.

With such a device a manufacturer could control sources of contamination, according to a Corning representative.

The conference was held May 25 and 26.

County okays counsel for government reform

Wayne County's Board of Commissioners has moved to hire its own legal counsel as the first step toward reform of the county structure, without necessarily taking over the Prosecuting Attorney's civil division.

The commissioners, meeting May 20, amended a committee recommendation that the entire 12-attorney civil division be transformed into a corporation counsel's office responsible to the board.

A three-point resolution adopted by the board stipulates that:

1. Board Chairman Robert E. FitzPatrick submit a candidate for the position of Corporation Counsel by the June 17 board meeting.

2. FitzPatrick and James DeSana, chairman of the board's Special Committee on County Reorganization, also submit the names of individuals, if any, to be transferred from the civil division to the new corporation counsel staff.

3. That the changes take immediate effect June 17.

One of the major immediate duties of the corporation counsel will be to assist DeSana's reorganization committee in its study of the county structure and in preparing recommendations for improvements.

The committee is considering a study report by the Citizens Research Council of Michigan. The study, commissioned by the Board of Commissioners, recommends sweeping overhaul of the county structure.

Study recommendations include one that the legal staff of the Road Commission and the civil division of the prosecuting attorney be merged to form an office of corporation counsel.

This year's Valedictorian is Miss Susan M. Diepenhorst, daughter of Gerald and the late Marion Diepenhorst. Susan resides with her aunt, Miss Pearl Morris, 13880 Huron River Dr.

Liedels entertain for daughter

WITH OVER 450 in Belleville High's graduating class this year, it takes a little juggling to squeeze in parties for the seniors. Some get an early start, avoiding the overlap of receptions which take up the week-ends enfolded commencement.

In Rene Liedel's case, it was a matter of a busy schedule which moved her open house up to Sunday, May 23. Rene, who has been selected as an exchange student to the Philippines under the auspices of Youth for Understanding, leaves Belleville June 20 for a two-day orientation period at Shawnee Valley College, then departs immediately from Metro Airport for Manila.

Rene will be gone for nine weeks, returning on the 26th of August just in time to pack her gear for the start of classes at Western Michigan University August 29. This year's DAR Earl at Belleville High. Rene has been working at Rama Bakery to help pay for her trip and college education.

On hand at the Doug Liedel's Edgedale Drive home for the open house honoring their daughter were some 110 friends, relatives and classmates who enjoyed a buffet dinner from five to eight. Guests were from Milford, Maybee, Monroe, Ypsilanti, Garden City, Dearborn, and Belleville.

Nomads soar on high -- destination unknown

MEMBERS OF THE Nomads boarded their flying clubhouse recently without knowing their destination. Members of this local flying club were given a clue as to wearing apparel but trip directors, Joe and Ami Benich of Warren, kept the destination a secret by being a source of misinformation until well on the way to Miami and the swinging Newport Resort Motel.

The itinerary included free flights to Freeport, passes for golf and racing, daytime activities for the children, and nite club activities for the swingers as well as a special bonus — a look at the Nomad's new Electra being outfitted in Miami.

Local Nomads passengers were Clarence E. Wrightnour and Mary H. Wrightnour of Romulus and Larry and Barbara Boelter of Belleville.

Carpet tiles: inexpensive floor

Do-it-yourself carpeting offers still another choice in homedecor, says Margaret Boschetti, home furnishing specialist for the Michigan State University Cooperative Extension Service.

Pre-cut carpet tiles were first introduced about five years ago in one size range - 12-inch squares - with a limited color selection.

Now, the original squares are supplemented by 9- or 20-inch sizes, 18-inch rectangles and a new, non-geometric - a Moorish-shape tile. Besides the original polypropylene fiber, they are made of acrylics and nylon.

The tiles come in joined patterns and embossed styles as well as shag. All of these dimensions help to conceal seams.

With enough tiles, a little time and a shears for fitting nooks and crannies, even the unhandiest do-it-yourselfer can lay an attractive floor covering, Miss Boschetti says.

Pre-cut carpet tiles eliminate installation costs. Each tile has an adhesive backing that will take several applications and removals without losing its stickiness.

If a tile becomes damaged, it can be taken up individually. The tiles are easy to clean and can be rotated to equalize wear. Besides being inexpensive (usually $5 to $10 a yard), they can be installed directly over existing floors.

One carton is usually adequate for covering a small bathroom or apartment-sized kitchen floor, Miss Boschetti says.

Foods for fingers

Pre-school children can handle food with more ease and comfort when eaten with fingers. Cutting mats and vegetables into cubes or pieces will help the pre-schooler like to eat a variety of foods.

Fashion demands convenience and individuality

"Fabric and fashion industries are learning to play a 'new ball game,'" says Bernetta Kahabka, textiles specialist for the Cooperative Extension Service of Michigan State University. "It's a game with no precedents and no rules, except those of individuality, easy-care and flexibility."

She quotes Irving Gilman, president of the Analytical Research Institute, saying, "The implications for the industry are ... to try to understand the real practical and emotional needs of a given segment of society at a specific time ... today's and tomorrow's styles must be designed with the understanding that the consumer is no longer the docile receptacle of someone else's ideas, but is an individual who is aware of what he wants and is determined that the manufacturer take his awareness into consideration."

Recent product developments reflect the concern of the textile industry for the consumer, the specialist believes. Great improvements have been made in durable press fabrics, textured yarn, woven fabrics, antistatic nylon.

"Durable press fabrics, have become almost a 'fact of life' for consumers, Miss Kahabka says. Largely taken for granted, they are hardly exciting any more. But certain refinements and new applications of the process have extended the usefulness of durable press."

One new durable press fabric on the market contains 80 percent polyester, so the cotton or rayon blended with it does not have to be resin treated. This is an advantage for people who are sensitive or allergic to the heavily designed fabrics.

Another development in durable press in the application of the process to knit fabrics. However processing durable press knits could prove difficult because of the nature of the knit fabric compared to a weave, Miss Kahabka points out.

--A new possibility for warmth without weight is a two-way textured yarn woven fabric. The warp and the filling yarns are both textured to give the fabric bulk and comfort stretch. The amount of stretch or bulk can be tailored to fit a specific end use. Because of their structure, two-way textured wovens can be made into a heavy-weight (will or silky-light and clinging fabric.

--Static build-up in nylon garments has always been a problem, Miss Kahabka says. But a method has been found to introduce antistatic properties into the fiber at the solution stage. Besides better opacity and luster, the antistatic property minimizes soil retention. Because of the nylon's attraction for water it releases dirt easily.

While the first natural market for antistatic nylon is in undergarments it will undoubtedly be introduced for use in hosiery, socks, blouses and outerwear, Miss Kahabka says. And, since more and more men's trousers are being made of 100 percent polyester double knits, the problem of an antistatic polyester will probably get a great deal of attention in the future.

MR. AND MRS. BEN SCOTT

Ben Scotts honored on golden wedding day

A well-known Romulus couple, Ben and Ada Scott of 1212 Elmview, were honored guests Sunday, May 9, at a golden wedding celebration planned by their daughters, Mrs. Betty Le Vick of Rochester, Mrs. Ruth Bleeker of Belleville, and Mrs. Mary Lou Ratz of Monroe; and their son, Earl Scott of Grosse Pointe Farms.

The party was held at Cameron Hall in Taylor. Ellen and Herbert Koester of Romulus, Mrs. Scott's sister and brother-in-law, were largely responsible for the decorations which centered about a dogwood tree, dogwood having been the couple's wedding flower. Bouquets of lilacs also adorned the dining room along with a three-tiered wedding cake accented with dogwood blooms.

ABOUT 100 GUESTS enjoyed a buffet style dinner. The Wedding March, played in honor of the couple, had previously been taped by daughter, Betty at the organ, and Mrs. Koester playing the violin as she had at the wedding 50 years ago on May 11, 1921. A champagne toast was also given the couple.

Guests came from as far away as Louisiana, Massachusetts and Ohio. Others were from Port Huron, Standish, Pontiac, Grosse Pointe Farms, Rochester, Wayne, Detroit, Monroe, Harper Woods, Livonia, Westland, Romulus, and Belleville. They enjoyed dancing to the strains of Earl Scott's trumpet with organ accompaniment.

The Scotts received many gifts, cards and flowers including congratulatory messages from President Nixon, Governor Milliken and Romulus Mayor Carmichael.

Bride-elect honored at shower

Miss Ruth Vorce of Ann Arbor and Mrs. Jay Herkimer were co-hostesses at a miscellaneous bridal shower held at the latter's home on E. Huron River Dr. on Sunday, May 23, honoring Mary Louise Williamson of Birmingham, fiancée of Tom Pitcher, son of Mr. and Mrs. Wylie Pitcher of Main St.

Present for an afternoon of appropriate games were 28 relatives from Birmingham, Clayton, Ypsilanti, Allen Park, Belleville, and Oak Harbor, Ohio.

Assisting in the opening of the many lovely and useful gifts was a bridesmaid, Janet Pitcher.

At the close of an enjoyable afternoon, the hostesses served a lunch of chicken salad, assorted crackers, relishes, nuts and mints.

The happy couple will exchange their wedding vows on Sunday, June 27, at Franklin, Michigan.

Mrs. Betty Le Vick read a poem she had written depicting the main events in her parents' 50 years of marriage.

The Scotts have lived in Romulus for the past 25 years since his retirement from the Detroit Police Force. For a number of years, Mr. Scott was a judge in Romulus and Mrs. Scott, a bank teller. She also served as organist at the Methodist Church for many years.

The couple has 12 grandchildren and three great-grandchildren.

Their many friends

THEIR MANY friends and former students are cordially invited to attend a retirement tea honoring Mrs. Velma Kulzer and Mrs. Dortha Simmons. The Edgemont Elementary School multi-purpose room has been reserved for the Thursday, June 3, gathering which will be held from three-thirty until five-thirty o'clock in the afternoon.

Women will learn uses of conflict

How often does a group project or a family discussion end up in conflict and argument? How often does hostility keep us from reaching our goals?

Participants in Michigan State University's annual College Week for Women may choose to study the nature of conflict in a three-session short course, June 15-18. Maxine Ferris, communication consultant for the MSU New Horizons Program, will teach the course - one of 23 to be offered at College Week.

"The course views conflict in groups as normal, perhaps inevitable, and often desirable," Dr. Ferris says. "Through discussion, role playing, simulation and other group experiences it focuses on 1) identifying the signs of unrest leading to conflict; 2) diagnosing the causes and possibilities of unrest; 3) planning and following a workable course of action for meeting conflict."

The "students" will learn how groups are often disrupted by value differences and disagreement over priorities related to the expenditure of time and money. They will also learn to recognize a "hidden agenda" - a buildup of hostility which, even though it may no longer be important, still interrupts group activities.

"Conflicts are often never resolved," according to Dr. Ferris. "Instead, they must be managed. When individuals develop a sense of 'community,' they learn to respect the opinions of others, even if they don't agree."

Other classes offered at College Week will include "Busy Woman's Guide to Power and Influence," "What's Happening to Eating?" "The Emerging Role of the Church Woman" and "The Family - A Caring Unit."

The event is open to all Michigan women, whether they are college graduates or not. Participants will live in an MSU dormitory and attend three mini-classes of their choice.

The cost for the entire convention - including food, lodging and registration - is $40. Commuters may register for $7. And, for those women who can't attend for the full four days, Thursday, June 17 has been reserved as Visitor's Day. Women may attend Visitor's Day for $4.

Kulp-Browning wed

Stewardess, engineer exchange nuptial vows

Some 50 lighted tapers, set amid arrangements of white and purple chrysanthemums and carnations formed the setting May 15 for the double ring marriage of Cheri Lea Browning and David Lee Kulp.

Rev. Sanford Cook presided at the seven thirty nuptials at the First Assembly of God in Dearborn Heights. Musical selections for the ceremony included "The Lord's Prayer" and "More."

The daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Browning of 46725 Newton Road, Belleville, the bride was a stewardess with United Air Lines prior to her marriage.

The bridegroom, whose parents are Mr. and Mrs. Walter S. Kulp, Jr. of Tamaqua, Pennsylvania, made his home at 7833 Mead Avenue, Dearborn, the newlyweds' current address. He is with the Ford Motor Company at Dearborn working as a product development engineer for the overseas distribution office.

ESCORTED TO the altar by her father, Cheri appeared in a toe-touching creation of organza and peau d'ange lace. Lace formed the scalloped Juliet collar and was repeated on the long, tapered sleeves and again on the skirt. Adding back interest to the pearl and sequin accented gown was a wateau train with a scalloped border.

Her floor-length mantilla was banded in peau d'ange lace and she carried miniature mums and white carnations centered with a purple orchid.

Mrs. Susan Kincheloe came from West Orange, New Jersey to serve as honor attendant. Bridesmaids were Dottie Jones, also of West Orange; Mary Anne Browning of Lincoln Park, a cousin of the bride; and Louise Ann Kulp, the bridegroom's sister, who was junior attendant.

FLOOR-LENGTH FROCKS of satin with white beaded trim were worn by the quartet, Mrs. Kincheloe's being in royal purple and the others in lavender.

Their headpieces were Juliet caps with beaded trim and their bouquets were comprised of mixed purple mums and carnations.

For her role as flowergirl, Deborah Renee Hill, the bride's seven-year old cousin from Ypsilanti, donned a lavender satin floor-length gown with a royal purple bolero jacket. The basket she held was filled with purple mums and baby carnations.

Best man was Aug Myint of Westland. Others on the esquire side were Scott Kulp of Tamaqua, Pa., brother of the bridegroom, Chuck White of Farmington, and John McInerney of Detroit.

THE PARK PLACE in Dearborn was reserved for the reception which followed. Some 150 guests were received by Mrs. Browning in a formal gown of pink satin and Mrs. Kulp wearing a floor-length pink crepe ensemble. Both mothers were presented with corsages of baby pink roses and small white carnations.

The newlyweds spent a week-long honeymoon in Las Vegas and Disneyland before taking up residence in Dearborn.

Cheri, a 1965 graduate of Belleville High School, attended Northern Michigan University for a year before joining United Air Lines for two years.

Her husband graduated in 1960 from Liberty High School in Bethlehem, Pennsylvania and in 1967 from Pennsylvania State University.

of the apprentice system were tossed out with the injustices of the sweat shops, they claim. Years ago, a lad could become a master craftsman by age 21. Rare is the 21-year-old college man now who can qualify for anything but an apprenticeship. Youngsters, they think, ought to be allowed to work at low wage on limited shifts. What's your stand on this matter? Personally, am inclined to agree.

Will your offspring be left-handed, young lady? If either you or your husband is left-handed, chances run one in six your baby will be, too. If neither you nor your husband is left-handed whanded odds only go one in 16 the baby will be. Already mentioned Joe Frazier and Cassius Clay put together weigh just about as much as the skin of a grownup hippopotamus. They also weigh just about as much as the greenery said hippo eats in one night. That shouldn't be overlooked.

Customer service: Q. "Did you say the herring was the most common fish?" A. Probably. That's what I thought, anyway. But a scientist claims the most common is a specimen called the bristle mouth. Never heard of it Q. "Is there any word that means exactly the same in all known languages?" A. Only "Hallelujah," say our Language man...Q. "Bees kill more people than snakes, right?" A. Right, and snakes kill more people than spiders.

Am asked when the top government officials first started to employ professional speechwriters. Maybe 50 years ago, it was. Shortly after Secretary of the Navy Josephus Daniels delivered his famous farewell address to a long line of lady Marines about to be discharged from the service. Said he: "As we embrace you in uniform today, so we will embrace you without uniform tomorrow." He did not expect the thunderous applause. Didn't like it much, either.

Statistics also show a man who kills his wife is more likely to commit suicide promptly than is a woman who kills her husband..Why don't the boxing promoters play fast music to pick up the pace of their bouts? That's how it's done in Thailand..Hard to believe, but it's true that just about a third of everything sold retail goes through some sort of franchise.

Congressmen seek withdrawal, return of prisoners of war

Congressman William D. Ford (15th District) has joined with 46 other members of the House in a bi-partisan attempt to end American involvement in Southeast Asia by Christmas this year.

The 47 House members, Republicans and Democrats, have co-sponsored a resolution calling upon President Nixon to set a date for withdrawal of all American military personnel, provided the North Vietnamese, the National Liberation Front (NLF) and the Pathet Lao will release all their American prisoners by the same date.

The resolution, called "Proportional Repatriation," specifies that 5 percent of the American troops be withdrawn each time 5 per cent of our prisoners were released. The simultaneous withdrawal and release would be supervised by a neutral country or international agency.

Each group of prisoners would be held by the neutral country until it had verified that the proper number of American troops have been withdrawn. The Communist side would be required to produce a complete list of American prisoners at the outset of the exchange.

Congressman Ford enthusiastically praised the plan, which he termed a "sound, practical and foolproof idea to end the war and obtain the release of American prisoners."

"The prisoner-release problem has been a particularly tough question," Congressman Ford said, "which is complicated by mutual distrust. The use of a neutral country, and the gradual, proportionate release-withdrawal feature, would overcome the problems created by this mistrust.

"Unless the Administration is, indeed, using the prisoner issue as an excuse to retain American troops in Southeast Asia, I can see no reason for the President to oppose this plan. It has the support of many of the wives, mothers and families of Americans now held by the Communists.
